

CASE STUDY:

Rhode Island DOC found themselves buried In paper applications and in desperate need of an automated management tool.

"The folks at PoliceApp have been great to work with as they are responsive and always ready to assist with our requests and/or questions. We are an advocate for PoliceApp and have directed other agencies within the state to PoliceApp."

-Wayne T. Salisbury Jr., Assistant Director at Rhode Island Department of Corrections

THE CHALLENGE:

One of the challenges RI DOC faced, was applicant management. Prior to PoliceApp, they collected paper applications. Soon tracking, organizing and collecting necessary documents quickly became an overwhelming job. Managing where each candidate was In the hiring process was an Immense assignment. Their hiring strategy was slow, cumbersome and stressful for applicants and the department alike.

THE SOLUTION:

With PoliceApp's platform Rhode Island Department of Corrections was able to consolidate and manage recruitment. They streamlined administrative functions, while keeping the entire process organized.

THE OUTCOME:

Although the amount of applications received has remained the same, the quality and diversity of the applicant pool has Improved. Relying on paper applications will limit an agency's hiring flow. It lacks the functionality found in PoliceApp's recruiting technology that allows agencies to be much more efficient and targeted with selection. The paperless system ensures that all necessary staff Involved In the hiring process has access to the Information about an applicant. Implementation of PoliceApp has ultimately made the hiring process more efficient.

PoliceApp is an online application and recruitment system designed for police departments and law enforcement job applicants. Designed by law enforcement professionals and technology experts, PoliceApp simplifies the application and recruitment process, eliminates process redundancies and reduces frustration and time resources by easily publicizing current law enforcement job openings, matching candidates with the police jobs they qualify for, allowing for efficient communication between departments and applicants, creating consistency across police departments, and streamlining and organizing the application experience.
